Crook County Recognized Employees with 20+ Years of Service

The Crook County Board of Commissioners honored its dedicated employees who have reached significant service milestones, as well as two esteemed colleagues who were retiring, during a Regular Session in September. This special recognition was designed to appropriately acknowledge the hard work and loyalty of employees who have contributed 20 or more years to the service of the community.

“Crook County deeply appreciates the dedication and hard work of all its employees. It’s important that we take the time to recognize those who have dedicated significant portions of their careers to serve our community,” stated Commissioner Brian Barney.

Recognized for their Longevity and Service:

- Michael McGrew, Juvenile Department, celebrates an impressive 35 years of service.
- Cass Raymond, Road Department, recognized for his 30 years of dedication.
- Julie Lancaster, Community Development, marks her 25th year with the county.
- Additional employees celebrating 20 years of service include: Bill Elliott, Tish Plasterer, Timothy Durham, Wade Page, Roger Chapman, Gordon Chandler, Cindy York, Randy Davis, Richard Kludt, Rebecca Ott, Shaun Christofferson, Laura Fladung, and Chris Estes.

Celebrating Retirement:

- Cam Teater, Road Department, recognized for 10 years of service upon his retirement.
- Richard Evans, Community Department, will be retiring after 5 years of dedicated service.
